This perfect getaway, with an elevator to access all floors, is located on one of Southern California's more prominent beaches. Hollywood Beach has a rich history of wealth, steamy stories of famous stars, and wealthy entrepreneurs who have lived or are currently residing here. If you can't afford to buy here, at least, you need to visit.

Every room is well appointed, from the entry to the gorgeous master suite with a balcony to the abundant living and entertaining areas. Fabulous bedrooms, on every floor, create privacy. The gourmet kitchen, with a fireplace, is an entertainer's dream come true. The kitchen features a large Wolf range, built-in refrigerator, center island, granite counters, a fireplace and lots more.

A close commuting distance to Los Angeles, between Malibu and Santa Barbara, Hollywood Beach in the Channel Islands Harbor, is an awesome place to live. Every day is like a vacation.
